History

BERLIN '48: The Great Airlift	Special	45 minutes
Through the worst winter in German history, across fog-shrouded airways, with primitive radars, this is the story of the brave airmen that kept a city alive despite the odds. Berlin, reeling from the catastrophe of World War II, held hostage in a power struggle between the Western Allies and the Soviets, received one thousand flights every single day.
EAGLES OVER THE GULF	Special	38 minutes
A prized documentary of the air war of Operation Desert Storm, viewers experience the exhilaration, trials and triumphs of modern air warfare with U.S. Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force pilots. A film of unprecedented emotional power featuring stunning scenes of the world's most powerful aircraft and the stories only the pilots could tell.
FORGOTTEN GUNFIGHTERS: The Pleasant Valley War	Special	60 minutes
In the annals of the American West, there were many men and women whose stories lay dormant in our nation's history and their names forgotten. Although they may not have been Jesse, Wyatt, nor The Kid, their lives carry as much spectacle and awe as any famous hero or desperado of that time. In this pilot episode, THE PLEASANT VALLEY WAR, this was not just any war but a blood feud that would last close to ten years and leave in its wake fifty casualties.
FRONTLINE PILOTS	Series	5 x 45 minutes
Action from the cockpits of jet fighters, bombers, and a formidable array of military aircraft high in the indigo skies on the threshold of space to the decks of aircraft carriers and in thrilling air-to-air combat sequences.
GUN CAMERA FOOTAGE OF WORLD WAR II	Special	45 minutes
Original footage from World War II fighter planes and bombers. Viewers witness the terror of the air war exactly as it was fought in Europe and the Pacific, all seen from the unique vantage point of the cockpit and gun barrels. This is raw, unedited footage exhibited without any programming structure or editorial intervention.
LIBERATION OF EUROPE, THE	Series	7 x 60 minutes
It was the epic struggle of mankind. This outstanding series parallels the award winning BAND OF BROTHERS, tracing the battles from the beaches of Normandy through the hedgerows of France, into Germany and on to Berlin. Containing real on-the-scene footage produced during the war, THE LIBERATION OF EUROPE includes all of the battles, all of the tactics and some of the best footage ever seen of this history-making epoch. Assembled at the end of World War II, these are the official factual films which convey a sense of time and place that contemporary documentaries cannot recreate. Episodes include D-DAY; AIR WAR EUROPE; ACROSS OCCUPIED FRANCE; INTO NAZI GERMANY; ATTACK OF THE WEHRMACHT; THE PUSH TO BERLIN; and VICTORY.
LIFE AT GROUND ZERO	Special	45 minutes
Three remarkably candid U.S. government films document the only civilian nuclear effects tests ever conducted anywhere in the world. Portraying incredible naivete and oversimplifying a powerful issue, these films show men and women, cars, homes and all manner of buildings placed near ground zero and then blasted by hydrogen bombs.
LOST BOMBS; Irretrievable Nuclear Weapons	Special	48 minutes
This amazing program examines how ten air crews dealt with dire emergencies in armed nuclear bombers. The results are absolutely, positively nothing short of startling and they are completely true. From the Simon & Schuster book by Douglas Keeney.
